25 March, 2001

ARTICLE I

Section 1. The organization existing under these Bylaws is to be known as the Sixteenth District, Department of Virginia, The American Legion.

Section 2. The Sixteenth District shall be governed by the Constitution of the Department of Virginia, which is hereby adopted as the Constitution of the Sixteenth District, and these Bylaws are intended to adapt that document to essentially local situations.

Section 3. These Bylaws are adopted subject to the provisions of the National Constitution of the American Legion and the Department Constitution. Any amendment to the said National or Department Constitutions which is in conflict with any provision hereof shall be regarded as automatically repealing or modifying the provisions of these Bylaws to the extent of such conflict.

ARTICLE II - DISTRICT OFFICERS

Section 1. The elected officers of the District shall be a Commander, three Vice Commanders of equal rank, Finance Officer, Sergeant-at-Arms, Chaplain and, with the exception of the provisions detailed under Article VIII of these Bylaws, one-Finance Committee Member.

Section 2. Officers of the District will be elected at the District Convention in accordance with Article VI, Section 2, of the Department Constitution.

Section 3. The District Commander, immediately upon assuming office, shall appoint the following District officers: Adjutant, Historian, Judge Advocate and Service Officer. In addition, the District Commander, immediately upon assuming office, shall, as provided for in Article I, Section 6 of the Department Bylaws, designate one of the elected District Vice Commanders as his Deputy Commander.

Section 4. District officers and members of the Executive committee shall serve for a term of one year, which shall commence immediately upon adjournment of the Department Convention of the year of election or appointment until the adjournment of the Department Convention of the next succeeding Legion year.

ARTICLE III - MANAGEMENT

Section 1. The government and management of the District is entrusted to a committee to be known as the "Executive Committee".

Section 2. The Executive Committee shall consist of all the elected and appointed officers of the District, the immediate Past District Commander, the Post Commanders of each Post in good standing of the Sixteenth District and all Past District Commanders subject to the limitations of Section 5. of this Article. A Post Commander may, if necessary, designate a representative from his Post to attend the Executive Committee meetings with authority to exercise the Post Commander's vote.
